

Welcome to

VILLA TUSCOLANA

HOTEL • CONGRESS • MEETING • EVENT • WEDDING

Villa Tuscolana is a luxurious abode built in the 500s and is in a dominant position on the slope of the Tuscolo Hill.

"La Rufinella" is one of the ten Tuscolane Villas, the highest on the hill above the town of Frascati. It was built in 1578 by Cardinal Alessandro Rufini where the ruins of the ancient Roman residence of Marco Tullio Cicerone stood.

Over the centuries the Abode has belonged to many of the most important families of the Roman nobility; it was redesigned and enriched by Luigi Vanvitelli the architect who became famous for the construction of the Royal Palace of Caserta.

WHAT A STORY!

A magical location that embraces Rome from Tuscolo

A few kilometers from the Eternal City, in a unique and strategic location, it is the perfect starting point for exploring from the Roman castles to the heart of the capital.

Today Villa Tuscolana is a welcoming Hotel* with a refined atmosphere, a modern and functional Congress Centre, a restaurant with a traditional Mediterranean cuisine revisited with contemporary elements in which the raw material plays a fundamental role.

 HOSPITALITY

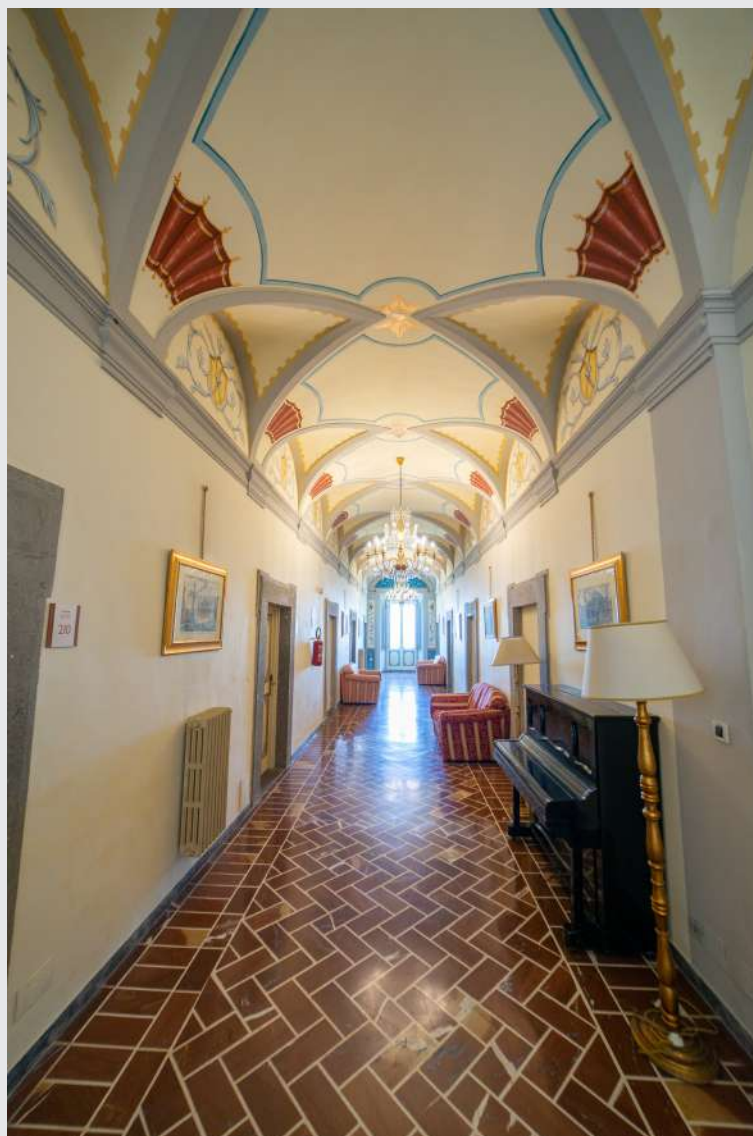

A beautiful location where history and modernity come together to offer a truly unique experience.

Loved by poets and artists, the Villa in its artistic richness is a pearl to discover in the most secret Rome.

Careful restoration work has safeguarded the architecture giving the structure an environment of undisputed charm.

The hills of the Tuscolo Archaeological Park open their doors to the intimate and reserved atmosphere of Villa Tuscolana, where the harmony of the Italian Gardens and the privileged position reserve for its guests unparalleled views of the Eternal City.

A REAL DREAMING

An aerial photograph of a large, multi-story villa with a dark tiled roof and light-colored walls, surrounded by lush green trees. The villa is situated on a hillside, and a paved road with several parked cars runs alongside it. In the background, the dense urban landscape of Rome is visible, with the sun setting over the city, creating a warm, golden glow across the sky and the city's rooftops.

So Close to Rome...
