

Contribution ID: 40

Type: not specified

MAORY - progress status and science team activity

The MAORY science team activity and working plan will be presented together with the prompt positive feedback received from the INAF scientific community. Resolved stellar populations will be discussed, going from nearby single resolved objects to the outskirts of the Local Volume. These studies fully exploit the potential of the high resolution imaging and faint spectroscopy possible with MICADO+MAORY. The main observing modes and constraints for these instruments will be overviewed.

Author: FIORENTINO, Giuliana

Presenter: FIORENTINO, Giuliana